Sean's been performing for nearly 30 years — as a street performer, clown, juggler, and musician — all starting with Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey® Circus.

His act has taken him across the United States and is one of the busiest acts today on the state and county fair circuit.

He's performed around the world, in venues as diverse as Radio City Music Hall, at theaters and cabarets — even at the White House.

His sparkling wit — combined with amazing juggling, unicycling and physical comedy — delights audiences of all ages.

A master of improv, Sean tailors his shows to each individual audience and event.

talk about this for quite awhile...

Sean was a hit with our members. Thank you for making my job easier by making everyone laugh and enjoying themselves for our holiday party. People will talk about this for quite awhile ...

We saw the performance by Sean Emery at the Ohio State Fair yesterday afternoon. Very funny and entertaining. He established a rapport with the audience and the performance was very well timed and humorous. This was definitely a good entertainment selection for the Fair this year. My family enjoyed it immensely.

rapport with the audience

Your show was hilarious, inclusive, entertaining and FUN! You worked so well with the audience and everyone loved the interaction. We appreciate knowing that when we book an act from you we will have quality entertainment and do not have to worry about the level of professionalism from the act. Sean was completely entertaining without being offensive.

Sean did an outstanding job. He worked his tail off and had everyone in stitches. He's a riot. I'm still breaking up in laughter several times a day still thinking about some of the things he said and did. His ability to be improvisational is excellent.

IN STITCHES

Irishman

Sean, you are a master of your craft, you fly by the seat of your pants like no Irishman I've ever seen, you were great to work with, and you had everyone laughing and hanging on your every move. You have raised the bar for entertaining our guests, which is great!
